

Innovation in animal health & sustainable livestock production in Europe: Two sides of the same coin?

AnimalhealthEurope event
7 June 2018
Renaissance Brussels Hotel

Programme

6 June 2018: Pre-event dinner

Veterinary medicines regulation, a catalyst for more innovation?

Keynote speaker: Austrian Permanent Representation*

Timing: 19:00-22:00

7 June 2018: Event

Timing	Topics and speakers
8:30	Registration
9:00	Introduction Sarantis Michalopoulos, journalist at EurActiv
9:05	Opening statement Wijnand de Bruijn, AnimalhealthEurope President
9:10	Keynote speech: Importance of European innovation in times of uncertainty Eleanor Riley, Director of the Roslin Institute, University of Edinburgh
9:25	Animal health innovations in the spotlight: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Future vaccination strategies for pigs - which way to go? Hans Nauwynck, European SAPHIR project Precision farming for animal health management Thomas Norton, KU Leuven

09:45	Questions and answers
10:15	Face-to-face interview <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tom Tynan*, member of Commissioner Hogan's cabinet • Jannes Maes, CEJA President • Questions and answers
11:00	Networking break
11:20	Panel debate: How can innovation in the chain help the future livestock production in Europe? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Jean-Louis Peyraud, Animal Task Force President • Allan Buckwell, RISE Foundation • Jan Venneman, Director of the European Forum of Farm Animal Breeders • Noemi Malska, COO of HiProMine
11:45	Interaction with the audience
12:45	Take-home messages and close Roxane Feller, AnimalhealthEurope Secretary General
13:00	Networking lunch
14:30	End